

Raw HTML

Use this content block to embed raw HTML and third party code, e.g. for a Google Map.

When embedding a script or an iframe from a third party domain, it will be locked, unless that domain is on the permitted list.

Embedding third party code is risky and may cause harm to your website

You may have to contact Iconography prior to using these blocks, as third party domains will be blocked unless they have been whitelisted, e.g. for a Google Map
